Melasti Beach

FIRST STOP · UNGASAN

Your day begins at Melasti Beach in Ungasan — a relaxed, sun-soaked anchor with easy access and golden sands stretching beneath dramatic cliffs. It's the perfect daylight beach opener, easing you in gently before the cliff-edge temples and sunset spectacle that await later. Set the pace here, breathe it in, and let the day unfold.

SECOND STOP

Pandawa Beach

Known locally as Pantai Pandawa, this hidden-gem beach is framed by soaring limestone cliffs carved with traditional Balinese figures. The water is crystal-clear, the sand a brilliant white, and the atmosphere noticeably calmer than Melasti — ideal for unhurried photos, a slow swim, or simply soaking in one of Bali's most photogenic shorelines.

Uluwatu Temple

70 METRES ABOVE THE INDIAN OCEAN

Pura Luhur Uluwatu is one of Bali's most revered sea temples, dramatically perched on a sheer 70-metre cliff edge overlooking the Indian Ocean. Arrive early enough to explore the sacred grounds, watch wild monkeys roam the paths, and secure a prime viewing position — before the cliff-top fills for the Kecak performance at sunset.

SUNSET SPECTACLE

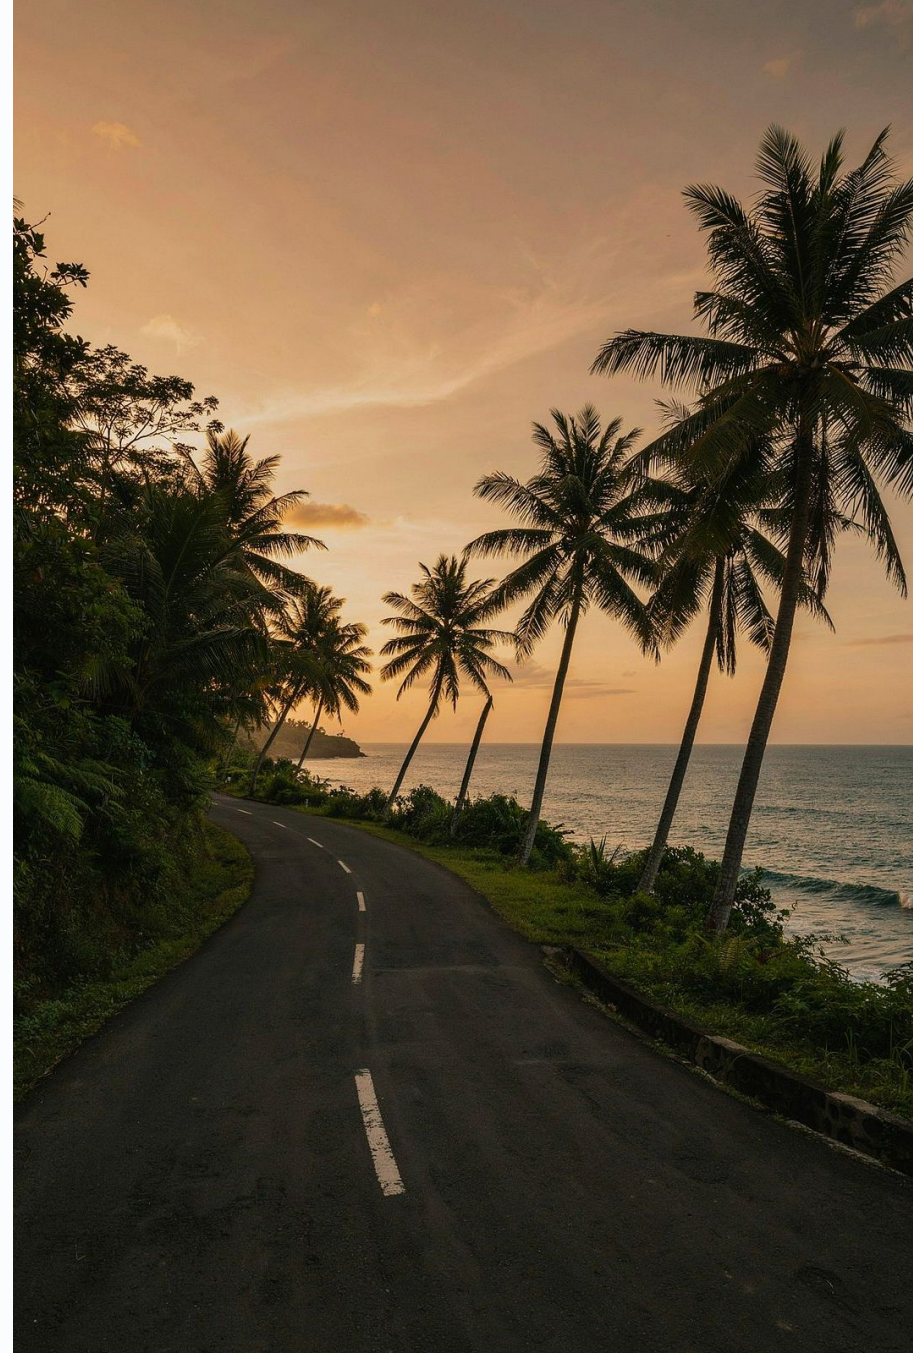

Kecak & Fire Dance

One of Bali's most iconic cultural experiences. The Kecak is a traditional Balinese dance-drama driven entirely by rhythmic chanting — no instruments, just voices. Staged at the cliff's edge with the sun melting into the ocean behind it, the performance begins at 6:00 PM to coincide perfectly with sunset. Unmissable.

The Transition

FROM CLIFF RITUAL TO COASTAL ENERGY

After the drama of Uluwatu and Kecak, this is your natural breather — a momentum shift from ancient ritual to the vibrant energy of the coast. Use the journey to Tanjung Benoa as a chance to reflect on the day's highlights so far. The last chapter of your South Bali loop is about to begin.

On-Water Practicalities

Most watersport packages at Tanjung Benoa are designed for convenience, including access to lockers and shower facilities on-site. Seas tend to be at their calmest in the morning — if you have scheduling flexibility, earlier slots offer smoother conditions and a better overall experience on the water.

- Facilities typically include lockers, showers, and life vests — everything you need for a comfortable session.

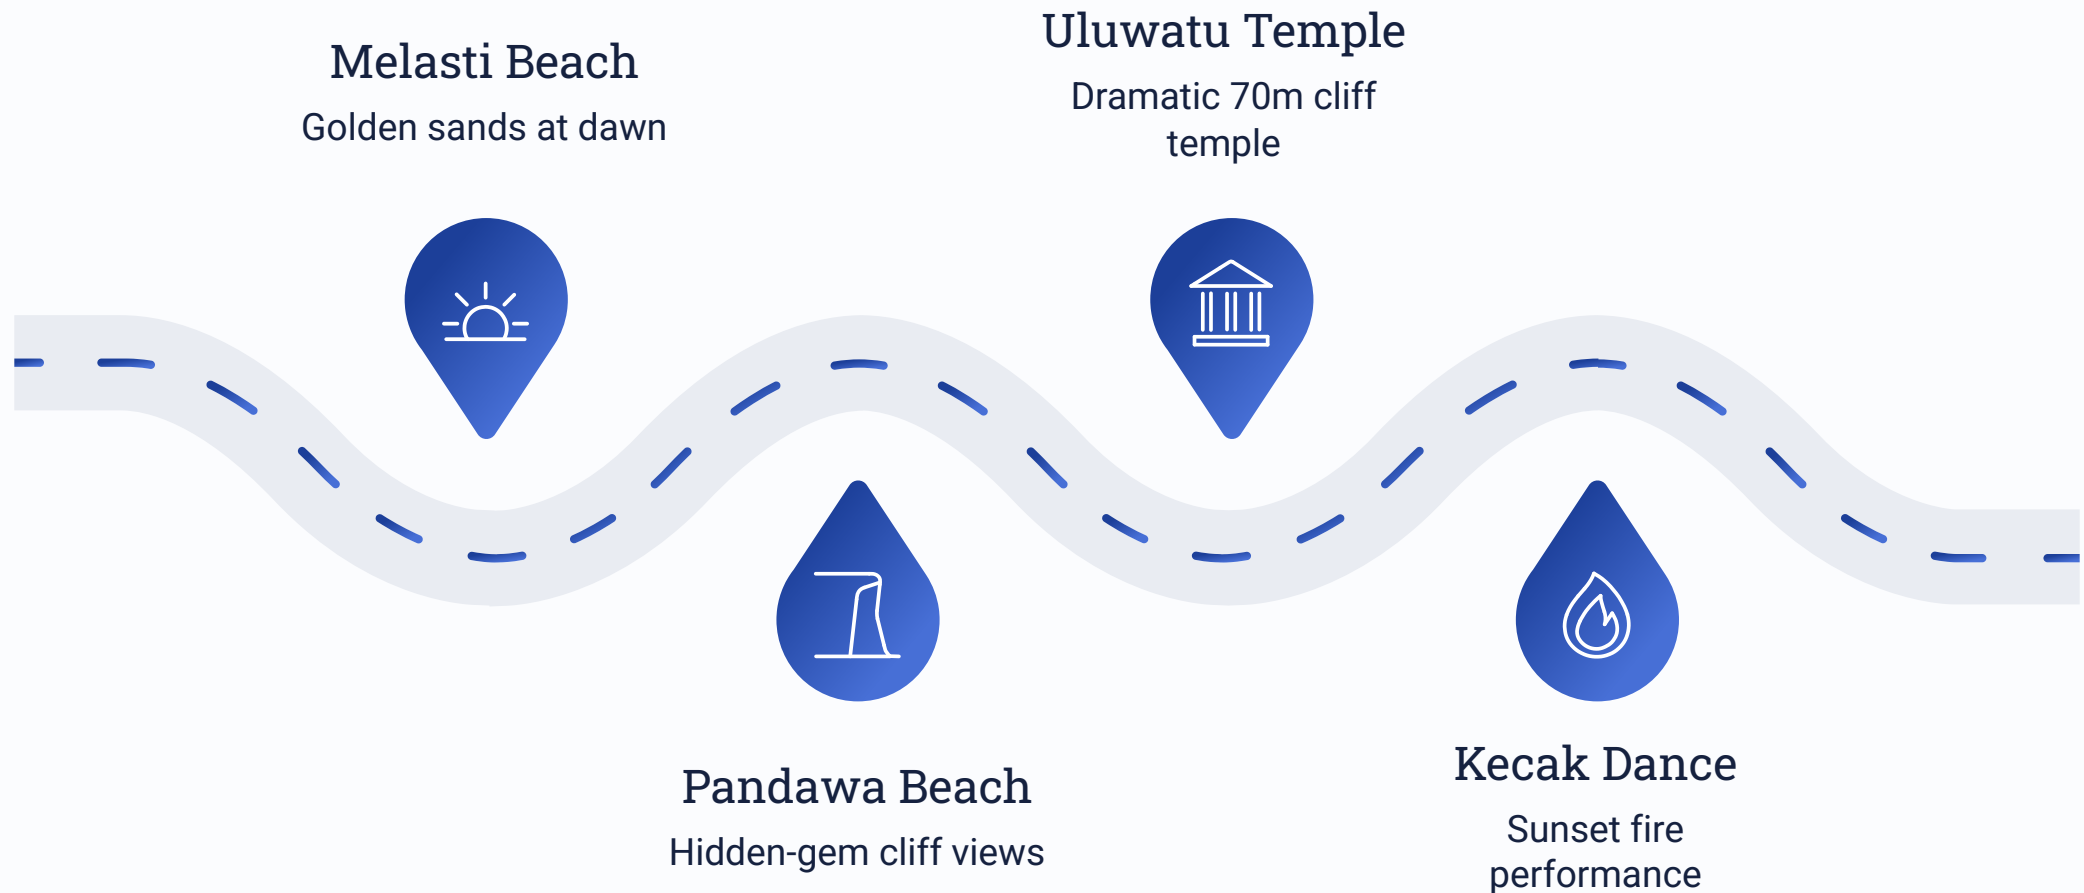

Jimbaran Bay

THE GRAND FINALE

As the stars appear over Jimbaran Bay, settle into a beachfront table and let the day wind down the best possible way — with freshly grilled seafood served under the open sky, waves lapping quietly nearby. This is Bali's most celebrated seafood dinner setting, and the perfect full-circle ending to a 10-hour South Bali journey.
